Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Mr. Fom is a head teacher at Mahonda Primary School. Two weeks ago, he invited Mr. Jamal to come to our school so as to talk to standard six and seven pupils about road accidents. Mr. Jamal is the Police officer at Mahonda Police Station. He works at Mahonda since 2007. Mr. Jamal arrived at 9:30 in the morning with two policemen escorted him.

The Police officer told us that, nowadays there are many road accidents in our country. He also insisted that, the main victims of this problem are pupils. Mr. Jamal said that there are many reasons that cause accidents such as carelessness of the drivers, driving in a high speed, bad roads, sharp corner and bad condition of motor vehicles.

Not only that but also sometimes you may find a driver drives a car while he or she has already drunk which is very bad. Also some drivers drive their cars while they are talking with their friends through phone. This habit can cause an accident. The Police officer added that, some accidents occur just because the drivers fail to follow road signs and symbols such as narrow bridge, sharp corner, zebra crossing, stop, no entry and others.

Ayoub, the class monitor of standard seven asked the police officer "what can we do if we see someone driving very faster?" "Good question!" The police officer replied. You have to tell the driver to reduce speed or go to nearby Police Station to report.

Mr. Jamal said hopefully you have understood very well because I see majority of you are happy and excited with this topic, Isn't it? "Yes! We are so happy with your information" the pupils replied. So, if that is the case, you have to be very careful when you pass through the road. Let me assure you that Police Station is a good place. So, you may come anytime if you have any problem.

A Speech on Health

A very good morning to my teachers and to the special guests who have come today. I would like to present a speech on health.

Health is a condition which determines a person's well-being. Health not only includes physical health but also mental health. Some group of people used to think and still think that looking after physical health is fine. But when it comes to mental health, these people become uncomfortable. They avoid those people who go for regular mental checkup. These people should understand that it is important to keep a regular check on both physical and mental health. People should not ignore upon people who go for regular mental checkup. A person is considered to be healthy if he is both physically and mentally stable.

To be physically healthy, a person needs to feed himself with healthy food which provides the body with the nutrients that the body needs to survive. The people also need to avoid food that is unhealthy for the human body.

A visit to the doctor on a regular basis helps in checking one's physical health. A person does not become ill if he feeds himself with nutrition rich food and if he exercises on a regular basis.

To be mentally healthy, a person needs to stay away from all kinds of negativities, get a good amount of sleep every day, try to stay happy, try to manage stressful situations tactfully, talk to the close friends or relatives, etc.

It is advised to go for a regular mental checkup without getting embarrassed thinking about what the people would say or think about him. It is one's responsibility to be physically and mentally healthy.

One should know that if a person is mentally healthy, then he can be physically healthy as it is our mind which controls everything. One needs to think positively on any situation so that he can improve his thoughts and he can be healthy in every way.

One healthy person can inspire many others who are trying to get better. It is a duty of everyone to help himself and the other people who are in his surrounding healthy and happy.

Many of us like to have oily fried foods which are tasty but they are very unhealthy for our bodies. So we should try to stay healthy for most of the times so that we can afford to eat our favourite food sometimes, without harming our body.

Similarly, we should keep our thoughts positive and get a good amount of sleep, and fulfill all the requirements for staying in peace so that we can handle sudden shocks or stress in a manageable way.

People can manage to survive without money but they can't manage without a stable health. One should lead a much disciplined life to lead a stable life with good physical and mental health. A healthy person lives a longer and happy life.
